Zabatak

Zabatak is a non-profit initiative to seek Egypt to become bribery free, corruption-free and safe.

Zabatak

The screenshot shows the 'SUBMIT A REPORT' form on the Zabatak website. The form includes a 'REPORTED' date field (23:24 Feb 18 2011), a 'User ID' field, and a 'Category' dropdown menu with options: 'Bribe government interests', 'Bribe politician', and 'Other'. The 'TITLE' field contains 'مبلغ 14 ألف درهم من المصارف بعد الإفلاس في فبراير'. The 'Description' field contains 'المبلغ كان على طائر جازير أبيض اللون من المصارف بعد الإفلاس في فبراير'. Below the form is a 'Facebook social plugin' and a 'Leave A Comment' section with fields for Name, Email, and Comments. A 'Security Code' field is also present. To the right of the form is a map of Doha with yellow markers, and below it is a video player showing a building.

Zabatak was built on the 2010 initiative Harassmap

HARASSmap

“HarassMap is an Egyptian award winning initiative founded in 2010 that is working to create an environment that does not tolerate sexual harassment.

We work to achieve our mission by convincing bystanders and institutions to stand up to sexual harassment before or when they see it happen. This way, by taking a collective stand against sexual harassment, we as a society can create social and legal consequences that discourage harassing behaviour and seriously reduce it.

HarassMap is based on the idea that if more people start taking action when sexual harassment happens in their presence, we can end this epidemic.”
